

CHRISTMAS 2010

A Marriage took place in October, day One,
As a Beautiful Bride joined our Clan,
When Billy, the Boy, a Marathon won,
Alexis, the Girl, got her Man!

The Girls all Adorned in their dresses, just right,
Were Katy, and Sarah, and Claire, so bright;
The Boys stood amazed with mouths wide Agape,
"I sure wouldn't Mind, having one as my Mate!"

The Mood of the day was one of great Joy,
A mixture of Happiness, Laughter, and Cheers;
One Mother so glad, her eyes filled with Tears,
The Other one cried, "There GOETH MY BOY!"

Then Johnny and Claire, with both Moms in tow,
Arrived at our Door, "We've Something to Show."
She held out her Hand, to show us her Ring,
The Band played Aloud, and Angels did Sing!

Some changes were made in Two-Thousand and Ten,
With Chris off to College, and Debbie, Sixteen.
The Mellons in Richland - Eliza and Jim,
Made room for Miz Terry, a Mother to Him.

While way down in Texas, was Jessie Marie
Aloft in the Air – a Pilot is She.
Though Lonely and Homesick she surely must be,
There's Andrew, mechanic, a FIX-HER-UP he!

The Call of the Wild came to Barbara and Bill,
A Lumberjack, Bill wants to be;
But now with his Axes, his Saws and his Mill,
No longer a Friend of the Forest is he!

Jim Mellon and Ell in their Mansion on Earth,
In a Land of great Beauty and People of Girth,
Like having their Nieces and Nephews come stay,
But not when the Master has Hockey-Game-Day!

Both Debbie and Chris are musicians at Heart,
With Talent God-given – right from the Start.
The Songs that they sing are of Jesus the King,
Coming from Heaven, Salvation to bring.

With Katie and Lisa, our Nurses, you know,
We've a Medical Staff of our own;
For Headaches or Sneezes, Diseases or Pain
The Cure is as close as our Phone.

The Meadowlane Vespers are anxious to Move
To a Comfortable Cottage that's built for Just Two.
The Children have Left or are Leaving, they Say,
But Surely, Bev hopes, that it's not Far Away.

Jeff Newton and Sarah, two People in Love,
A Wonderful Match, like Fingers and Glove,
So Happy and Cheerful - Full of great Fun,
But Flying or Teaching, their work's Never done.

And now we are gathered, a Family in Love,
To celebrate Jesus who came from Above.
So whether we get any Clothing or Toy
He draws us together and gives us great Joy.

Let's open our hearts on this Glorious Day,
Rejoice with all Saints as Humbly we Pray;

ALL TOGETHER

“OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN,
Thy Name hallowed be,
Forgive us our sin and help us to see
The Splendor of Christmas
Revealed in Your Son,
And never give up
‘Til earth's work is done.”

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL
