

THE WAY IT WAS!

LEBANON COUNTY

IN MAY 1925

- Elamina Krause, was crowned Spelling Bee Champion of the Lebanon Public Schools. She was an eighth grader in Harding Junior High.
- Lebanon Valley College held its annual May Day festivities on Memorial Day with a parade and crowning of the May Queen, Miss Mary Houck.
- "The Sunday School Lesson" regularly printed in the Lebanon Daily News each week was titled, "The Benefits of Total Abstinence" Daniel 1:1-16.
- The I.O.O.F - Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Lebanon observed the 101st anniversary of the organization in America at a service in the Fourth Street Presbyterian Church.
- Patschke's Garage advertised an Overland six-cylinder automobile for $985 - made by Willys-Overland Auto Co. A four-cylinder, four-door sedan sold for $715.
- The semi-annual musical recital of Cleona pupils of Mrs. Irene Albert Miller was held at the Cleona United Brethren Church on May 14.
- The North Lebanon Shoe Factory of Palmyra celebrated its twenty-first anniversary with a luncheon at Yingst's Hotel for forty employees.
- Bobby Yake of the West Lebanon baseball team was the celebrated pitcher against the York Colored Giants on Sunday, May 3rd.
- The Colonial Theater featured a dance revue with "weird dances with a Spanish aspect and a five-man Philippine string orchestra."
- Grubb & Miller Motor Company was located at 927 Cumberland Street in Lebanon, selling a Jewett Coach auto for $1260, F.O.B Detroit, tax extra.
- "Mrs. John Landis assisted her mother in house work Monday."
- The Rescue Fire Company of Mt. Aetna held a carnival every Saturday night in the hall featuring an orchestra from Lebanon on May 2.

"The Way It Was" is written by William Allen Zulker, Richland, PA - zulker@comcast.net
Source - The Lebanon Daily News archives, Lebanon Valley College Vernon & Doris Bishop Library